

BOMPAS & PARR

Studio Internship

Duration: Three-month, paid, full-time internship

Start date: 22nd January 2018

Location: Bermondsey

We are looking for a recent graduate to work at the Bompas & Parr studio in London on a three-month internship programme. The role will support the Studio Manager in running and caring for the studio, helping to shape a thriving place to create extraordinary experience design.

In addition to assisting with day-to-day studio tasks, the internship will give the successful candidate the opportunity to work on Bompas & Parr self-initiated projects. You will have the chance to utilise core skills such as research, creative, making, live event assistance, runner support and project administration.

The successful candidate must be willing to get involved in all aspects of the company. Candidates who show a desire to build a career in experience design will be seen favourably.

Essential experience required

- Degree level qualification
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to think creatively and problem solve under pressure
- A can-do attitude combined with passion, energy and enthusiasm
- Willingness to get involved in all aspects of the business in order to support the company's core business objectives

If you are interested in applying for this internship, please email work@bompasandparr.com with the following:

- Answers to the following three questions
- CV no more than two pages of A4
- 1 x A4 page with supporting imagery of past or relevant work, if applicable

NB, any applications that surpass the word count or exceed one page of imagery will automatically be discounted.
